

turnitin™

Turnitin is an Internet-based plagiarism detection service used here at Providence College.

Instructors use Turnitin to ensure their students are submitting original work.

Instructors normally use Turnitin on all papers at once while in Canvas. However, there may be times you want to bypass Canvas to check for plagiarism. The next steps that follow show you how.

Submitting one paper into Turnitin, bypassing Canvas.

Step 1

Turnitin works best with Chrome or Firefox browsers

Step 2

Type the following into your browser prov.ly/turnitin

Step 3

Press enter to go to this site.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the Turnitin website. The address bar displays the URL: `turnitin.com/shibboleth/join_class/73c29a6e6d7efac187026542683fe251f288d763a14ab3f33aa55856275cc798?lang=en_us`. A red arrow points from the text 'Press enter to go to this site.' to the address bar. The Turnitin logo is visible in the top left corner. In the top right corner, there is a navigation bar with the text 'Not currently logged in | English | Community'. Below the logo, there is a dark grey bar with the text 'Create Turnitin User'. The main content area is titled 'Join Class' and contains two input fields: 'Class Id' and 'Password'. Both fields are marked with an asterisk (*) and have a help icon (?) next to them. Below each input field is a placeholder text: 'Enter the class id' and 'Enter the key'. At the bottom of the form, there are two buttons: 'Save' (blue) and 'Cancel' (grey).

Step 4

The site automatically logs you in with your college credentials. If not, enter your PC Network Id and password.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the Turnitin website. The browser's address bar displays the URL: `turnitin.com/shibboleth/join_class/73c29a6e6d7efac18702654268fe251f288d763a14ab3f33aa55856275cc798?lang=en_us`. The Turnitin logo is visible in the top left corner. A dark navigation bar at the top right contains the text "Not currently logged in | English | Community | Help". Below this, a black button labeled "Create Turnitin User" is visible. The main content area features a "Join Class" section with two input fields: "Class Id" and "Password". A red arrow points from the text "If not, enter your PC Network Id and password." to the "Class Id" input field. The "Class Id" field has a red asterisk and a placeholder text "Enter the class id". The "Password" field also has a red asterisk and a placeholder text "Enter the key".

Step 5

Enter the account settings by clicking your name in the upper right-hand corner.

Step 6

Change "Activate quick submit" from No to Yes.

The screenshot shows a web interface for 'User Information/Account Settings'. It is divided into two main sections: 'User Information' and 'Account Settings'. The 'User Information' section includes fields for 'User name' (with a note that it must be a valid email address) and 'Current password' (with instructions on how to update it). The 'Account Settings' section includes dropdown menus for 'Default user type' (set to 'Instructor'), 'Default submission type' (set to 'Single file upload'), 'Activate quick submit' (set to 'Yes'), and 'Items per page' (set to '25'). A red arrow points from the text above to the 'Activate quick submit' dropdown menu.

Tip for Writing Objectives
A student objective should be written in the following format:

What are learning objectives?

- Learning objectives are specific, measurable, observable student behaviors.
- An objective is a statement of a performance you want students to be able to demonstrate (observable from the outside) under the following conditions:
  - An objective describes a behavior (not a condition, unless the condition is self-evident). (See how this looks in the sample objectives below.)

Why have objectives?

- To provide direction to instruction.
- To provide guidelines for assessment.
- To clarify and control what is taught.

Types of objectives

- Cognitive understandings, assessments, insights (e.g., "List and explain..."). This includes information recall, knowledge, or understanding, and problem-solving.
- Psychomotor skill sets (e.g., "Demonstrate that the following program can be deployed..."). Note a qualitative level (e.g., "adequately") is appropriate using a performance level.
- Affective values, experiences, and attitudes.

Tip for writing objectives

- More specific and detailed student objectives?
If objectives are to be used for objectives for assessment, they should be more specific than the following examples:
  - Identify the concept.
  - Identify the concept.
  - Identify the concept.
- The objective should be written in a way that is specific and measurable. (e.g., "List and explain...")
